3. About cookies
Web cookies are text files containing small amounts of information which are downloaded to the users’ device when they browse a website. Cookies are then sent back to the originating website on each subsequent visit. Cookies allow websites to recognize the user's device.

4. Types of Cookies
There are two main types of cookies:

4.1 Session cookies
These are temporary cookies that expire at the end of a browser session; that is, when you leave the site. Session cookies allow the website to recognize you as you navigate between pages during a single browser session and allow you to use the website most efficiently.
By browsing users.unimi.it/ricicla website, you consent to the use of this kind of cookies.

4.2 Persistent cookies
These are cookies which remain on your hard drive until you erase them or they expire. How long a cookie remains on your browser depends on how long the visited website has programmed the cookie to last. The Persistent cookies help websites remember your information and settings when you visit them in the future. A tracking cookie is a persistent cookie; it is a text file that a Web browser stores on a user's machine and that is used to track a user's activity online.

No persistent cookie is used in users.unimi.it/ricicla website.
Some Third-party services are used to improve browsing of the website, i.e. the embedding of videos in the MEDIA SESSION. Anyhow, we do not allow third party services (YouTube) on our website to send cookies to the users.

5. How to disable cookies (opt-out)
It is possible to withhold consent to the use of cookies by selecting the appropriate setting on your browser: browsing of users.unimi.it/ricicla website will not be affected in any way.
